

Amy is a graduate of the Oklahoma State University School of Architecture. She has a high degree of focus on the relationship between the built environment and how we perceive and experience it. Amy has a continued interest in sustainability methods and materials. Amy's strengths include programming and analysis, organization, graphic design, art and architectural design. Her current projects include the production of construction documents and drawings using both PC and Mac based programs.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Kriegh Architects Inc. PS, architectural team member, 2007 to present
Callison Architecture, architectural team member, 2007
Matrix AEP, architectural intern, summer 2006
Brian Lloyd Freese Architecture, architectural intern, summer 2006
BKL, Inc., architectural intern, summer 2004
Environment Control II: Acoustics, Lighting & Service Systems Teaching Assistant, fall 2006
First Year Design Studio Teaching Assistant, spring 2007

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Ferncliff Affordable Housing Project, Bainbridge, WA, 2008
Daigle Residence, Adaptive Re-use, Bainbridge, WA, 2008
Lanning Residence, New Home, Bainbridge, WA, 2008
Shore Residence, Remodel, Bainbridge, WA, 2008
Shaffer Residence, Remodel, Bainbridge, WA, 2008
Cabela's Hunting, Fishing and Camping Store, Greenwood, IN, 2007
Remodel of Tulsa Technology Center, Tulsa, OK, 2006
Oklahoma State University Campus Master Plan, Stillwater, OK, 2006

EDUCATION, LICENSES AND MEMBERSHIPS

Oklahoma State University, Bachelor of Architecture, 2007
American Institute of Architecture Students (AIAS), Member
ASTEK (Architecture Students Teaching Elementary Kids) spring 2002, 2003, 2005
ASLC (Architecture Student Leadership Council) fall 2004
CEAT (College of Engineering, Architecture & Technology) Success Coach, fall 2005 & 2006

AWARDS AND HONORS

Pella Prize 2006, 2nd place
Harrill Scholarship, for academic accomplishments
Burch Traveling Scholarship, for outstanding achievements in the design studio
PCI Competition 2005, honorable mention
Valedictorian Scholarship

TRAVEL EXPERIENCE

Semester Project Site Visit (Philadelphia, PA) fall 2006; European Travel Study Program (France, Spain, Italy, Belgium) summer 2005; Urban USA Experience (NYC and Washington, D.C.) summer 2005; Semester Travel Experience (Dallas, TX) fall 2005
FORUM, AIAS National Conference (New Orleans, LA) spring 2004

J. Kriegh Architects

921 Hildebrand Lane NE Ste 220 ♦ Bainbridge Island ♦ WA 98110 ♦ T: 206-780-1337 ♦ E: Amy@JKrieghArchitects.com